

That feeling when you step into leadership.

NPQ for Headship (NPQH)

Our NPQH is designed for ambitious school leaders who want to be – or already are – a headteacher.

This programme is designed by the Headteachers of some of the country's top performing schools, and through the course of the programme you will meet many of them, learning from them as they facilitate your sessions, hearing their inspirational stories through masterclasses, and visiting their schools through virtual visits. You will gain the crucial knowledge needed to succeed in this complex and challenging role, as well as the opportunity to apply your knowledge to your own context.

Working in partnership with:

You'll learn how to:

- ✔ Establish and drive your school's strategic direction.
- ✔ Set whole-school culture, creating a safe and secure environment for pupils and adults to learn, work and develop.
- ✔ Ensure curriculum and lesson planning is effective across all areas of your school.
- ✔ Develop and maintain the quality of teaching in your school.
- ✔ Design and implement assessment practices which produce valid and reliable data, and how to drive actions based on this data through others.
- ✔ Ensure all pupils experience success and enjoy a positive school experience, including those for whom school is more challenging.
- ✔ All aspects of statutory compliance you need to know as a headteacher, including safeguarding, exclusions, risk management, HR and finance.
- ✔ Work effectively with internal and external stakeholders.
- ✔ All aspects of governance and external organisations you will need to manage as a headteacher.

About us:

The National Institute of Teaching is a teacher and leader training and development provider.

Founded by four of the country's most respected school trusts, we are run by schools, for schools. Our aim is to boost the quality of teacher and leader development by generating and interpreting research, applying the insights to the design and delivery of our programmes, and sharing this with the sector.

How you'll learn:

Local seminars

Masterclasses

Virtual school visits

Group coaching

Self study

Our programmes are:

Designed with expertise from the frontline.

Structured to fit around teachers' busy schedules.

Powered by research; global experience applied to unique local contexts.

[This programme] has definitely given me the confidence and motivation to push myself into Headship. The networking opportunities and face to face sessions with experienced and knowledgeable facilitators have been invaluable.
