Train to Teach Event – 2nd December 2021 Introductions

Welcome Gillian Marshall CEO Alpha Trust

LEARN MORE

Gillian Marshall - CEO Alpha Trust, Executive Principal Colchester County High School for Girls

“Do you wanna be a teacher?
Or play some music in the halls?
I think some company is overdue
I've started talking to the pictures on the walls!”

Teaching gives you the opportunity to have a real impact on the lives of others.

Teaching is a profession that can offer you a training bursary and an excellent starting salary; however, these shouldn't be the only factors that motivate you to get into teaching. Of course, it's great to have these fantastic financial rewards in place, but teaching is a career that is far more rewarding than what you take home each month.

It's kinda fun to do the impossible!

Inspire the next generation

Achieve the impossible

Education is important for all our futures.

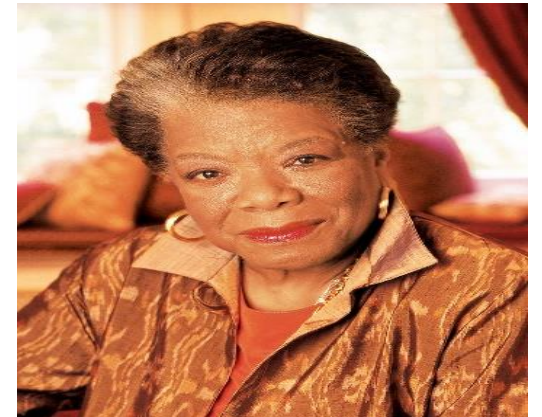

As a teacher, you'll have a pivotal role to play in shaping the next generation. You'll have the opportunity to be a role model with the ability to develop your students' talents and maximise their potential, enabling them to achieve something they thought they never could.

Great teachers show us things about ourselves we can't see. They see potential in us that others, including ourselves, can't or won't.

Above all, they give us the courage to find our own way with just enough guidance to show us that the impossible – or what we perceive as impossible – is anything but that.

Impact

- Emily Blunt: From Stutter to Stage – Emily is a Golden Globe-nominated film and stage actress. However, between the ages of 7 and 14 she developed a crippling stutter that had her struggling to even hold a simple conversation. "I never thought I'd be able to sit and talk to someone" For Emily, it was one teacher that she claims helped her overcome her fear of speaking by encouraging her to try out for the school play. The teacher wouldn't give up on her and coaxed her to take acting lessons and experiment with different accents and character voices.
- Maya Angelou: Finding a Voice – Before Maya became a powerful poet and civil rights activist, she suffered a life of torment and darkness that nearly stole her voice forever. It all changed one day with the help of a teacher named Bertha Flowers. Angelou credited Mrs. Flowers for helping her find her own voice a Mrs. Flowers introduced Angelou to Dickens, Shakespeare, Poe, and several other prolific writers who would come to greatly influence her personal and professional philosophies.

Impact

- Bill Gates: Questions that Matter - "When I first met Mrs. Caffiere, I was a timid fourth grader. I was desperately trying to go unnoticed because I had some big deficits. Mrs. Caffiere took me under her wing and helped make it okay for me to be a messy, nerdy boy who was reading lots of books." He credits Mrs. Caffiere for helping him escape his shell in the true spirit of exceptional teaching. she'd go out of her way to source books that were progressively more interesting and challenging for him. once he'd read them, she would ask him if he liked what he had read and what he'd learned and why.

Self Development and Self Improvement

Self-improvement is any activity or goal that enhances your quality of life or helps you reach your full potential and realise your dreams. You can improve your knowledge, your skills or your mindset and character – the important thing is that you are growing as a person.

Teaching supports :

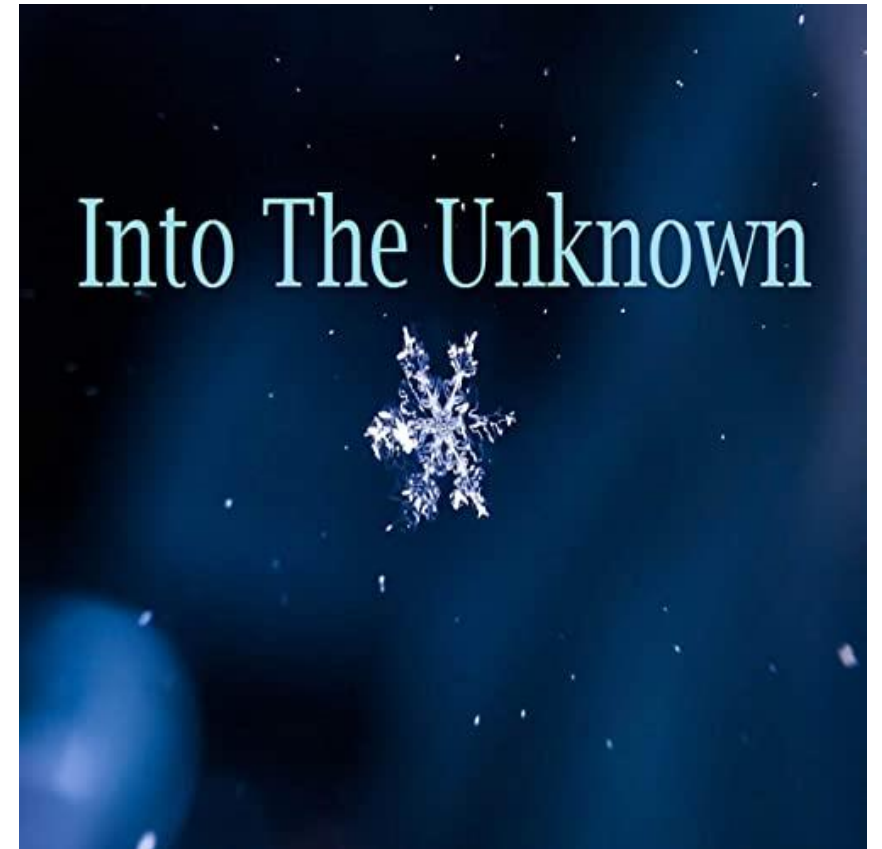

Personal growth	Knowledge	Creativity
Cognition - whole brain development	Use of language - literacy	Structure and scaffolding
Interpersonal skills	Subject mastery	Emotional intelligence
Numeracy	Varietyand so much more

So.....

“Do you wanna be a teacher?”

It doesn't have to be a snowman.

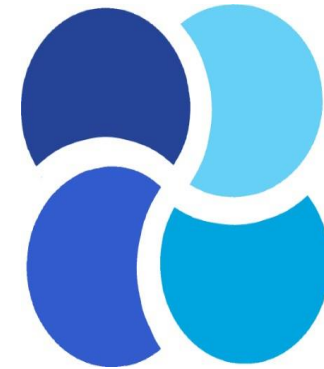

Teaching offers so much more.
